Sheriff Mellick and Attorney Gericke discussed potential for high medical costs for inmates. Extended hospital stays for inmates, or even a transfer/life flight of an inmate, could get costly. Medicare stops when an inmate comes into the jail, or some inmates don't have insurance. Mellick will talk to Jane Regan to see if there is any sort of insurance the county could obtain for this sort of event. Mellick says they will work with the local hospital to try to send transfers to an Iowa hospital.

Tuesday November 10, 9:00am will be the canvass of the General Election.

Department/COVID-19 updates: Lori Hesse and Jenny O'Neill reported on fund balances as of end of September, 2020 – investment totals over $13 million, higher than any other year Hesse has seen. LOSST estimates are higher than previous years and will be adjusted in November, if needed. The tax sale was completed online on September 21 thanks to efforts of Jenny O'Neill, 1st Deputy Treasurer. Corey Snitker reported on getting 15% local share covered by the state for COVID expenses, with submission deadline of November 15. Tom Blake gave the Supervisors the draft of the Allamakee Comprehensive Plan update and encouraged them to look it over and make comments by November 5, with goal of final adoption by the County by end of November.
